How do I report a Street Light Outage?

Report a street light outage online here, and complete the information requested. You will be asked for the street light/pole number which is located on the pole approximately 4' from the base.